

Announcement!

We've got some fantastic news to share - please join us in welcoming the newest addition to our team, Paul Savage!

Renard International has proudly served the hospitality community for over 54 years. Our success and longevity are attributed to our ability to adapt to industry demands. In line with this, we are excited to announce the expansion of our Executive Search Division post-pandemic. This decision stems from talent shortages and our clients' growing requirements for an enhanced Executive Search Facility. Saying this, we are thrilled to welcome Paul Savage as Senior Vice President Executive Search, leading our expanded Executive Search division. Paul's expertise ensures tailored solutions for our clients' management needs, and he will also oversee operations at our new Vancouver office.
